Hope renewed.

Arms of Hope changes the lives of children and families in crisis. A safe and nurturing environment brings hope and help. The result is success. Disadvantaged children and single mothers are transformed into self-sustaining citizens.

Arms of Hope

Boles Children's Home (est. 1924) and Medina Children's Home (est. 1958) were originally established as Christian homes for orphans, but have grown with innovative programs designed to serve at-risk children and single-mother families. Because they had identical missions and programs, both homes consolidated to form Arms of Hope to achieve efficiency, geographic diversity, increased capacity and additional program improvements and offerings. With a talented management team and large campuses in Medina and Quinlan, Texas, Arms of Hope is a leading residential assistance program for disadvantaged children and families fleeing homelessness, abuse, neglect and human trafficking.

PROGRAMS

Together Program

Helps motivated single mothers and their children transition into successful, independent futures by providing parenting skills, career training and a home in a peaceful and safe environment.

Right Start

Makes life a real choice by helping expectant single mothers prepare for motherhood while providing shelter, necessities and skills needed to care for their newborn babies.

Family Outreach

Realizing that inner-city poverty stricken families are in desperate need of physical, emotional and spiritual services, Arms of Hope created a Family Outreach Program. Currently in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio and Denton, these centers provide an opportunity to connect with resources to help families deal with hardships and life's challenges that often stress a family to the point where they need hope, restoration and guidance to find a path towards success and independence.

Residential Child Care

Meets disadvantaged children's physical, emotional, educational and spiritual needs in a warm family-like atmosphere where houseparents function as mother and father figures.

College and Career Program

Provides assistance for Arms of Hope high school graduates with support through college, trade school or into their first job and sometimes includes accommodations for graduates who have not yet found a place to call home.
